

WASHINGTON -- Congressman John W. Olver (D-1st District) and Senior Democrats from the Previous proposals for brownfields cleanup have been included in comprehensive legislation th

œBrownfields legislation is critical to protecting resources, revitalizing communities, and promo

œOlder industrial cities in my district like Pittsfield, Holyoke, and Fitchburg are full of former ma

The Community Revitalization and Brownfields Cleanup Act of 1999:

Â Provides grants of up to $500,000 annually to local governments for assessment of Brownfie

Â Provides grants of $500,000 to $1 million annually to local governments for Brownfield clean

Â Provides liability protection for prospective purchasers and developers of Brownfields.

Â Provides liability protection for innocent landowners.

Â Provides liability protection for contiguous property owners.

Â Provides $15 million annually for 5 years for grants to states to assist in developing state cle

###